

Every year approximately 150 Peace Officers die in the line of duty. Next week begins National Police Week and Monday May 15th is Peace Officers Memorial Day. Since 1962, Peace Officers Memorial Day has honored those men and women who have sacrificed their lives for the protections of this Nation's citizens.

You can show your support by replacing your porch light with a Blue Light or flying a Blue Ribbon on your car.

REMEMBERING THEIR SACRAFICES — HONORING THEIR SURVIVING FAMILIES
